

Sponsored by LEAD Foundation
A Community Forum - The Third in a Series

“When You Worry About the Child You Love: Emotional and Learning Problems in Children”

Dr. Hallowell describes the various emotional and learning problems children may have and offers practical tips on how best to deal with them.

Edward (Ned) Hallowell, M.D.

Nationally known speaker and co-author of
Driven to Distraction

*Nationally recognized expert on ADD/ADHD
On the faculty of Harvard Medical School
Founding director of the Hallowell Center*

Dr. Hallowell is a noted psychiatrist who has appeared on such national television shows as “20/20,” “The Today Show,” “Dateline,” “Oprah,” “Good Morning America,” and “The View.”

His most recent publication is *“Childhood Roots of Adult Happiness:
Five Steps to Help Kids Create and Sustain Lifelong Joy”*

Wednesday, March 12th, 7:00 to 8:30 pm
Admission is FREE

Books & tapes available for purchase at the event. Dr. Hallowell will be available for book signing before the event – starting at 6:30 p.m.

LOCATION:

Cheyenne Mountain High School (Lloyd Shaw Auditorium)
1200 Cresta Road
Colorado Springs, CO 80906

Everyone is welcome (adults, students, parents, teachers, counselors, etc.)

For further information about LEAD Foundation Community Forums see our website www.leadcolorado.org